FINAL 1991 DUES NOTICE.

Enclosed is a envelope for remittance of 1991 dues. As of Jan. 7th, five members have paid their 1991 dues and I can not continue to publish Jerseyana, unless I receive some additional funds. Our former treasurer(?) still has not relinquished any of the funds he is holding, so I have been financing the printing and mailing costs with my own money. Please cooperate and mail your dues payment promptly. Thanks and best wishes for 1991.- Al Zaika.

TOKEN FLASH:

Tokens are now in use on the Delaware Memorial Bridge, between Deepwater, N.J. and New Castle, De. They are an exact copy of the commemorative s that were issued when the bridge opened in 1962. The obverse features the state arms of Delaware and New Jersey, with the bridge above and a ferry boat below. The reverse shows the twin spans , 1968 date and RWM mint mark. The token is made of brass, with a steel center and measures 28mm. They are sold in rolls of 40 for $20.00, giving you a saving of 25¢ for each crossing, since the cash toll is 75¢.

DEADLINE FOR THE NEXT ISSUE OF JERSEYANA - MARCH 15, 1991.

BRIDGETON'S LIBERTY BELL

BY - AL ZAIKA

number of years ago, I acquired the following medallion;

Obverse - Bridgeton Liberty Bell, with a bell marked Bridgewater, 1763.

Reverse - Whitehead & Hoag Co., Newark, N.J.

Antique bronze, with a fob type loop, 32mm

Wishing to learn more about this bell, I contacted the Bridgeton, N.J. city clerk, Cumberland County officials and Historical Society. None of them had any knowledge as to when the medallion was issued or who the issuing agency was, but they were able to provide the following facts and history of The Bridgeton Liberty Bell.

During the Colonial era, county business was executed by two elected freeholders from each township and all the county Justice's of The Peace. The First Cumberland County Court House and jail was built in 1753, but was destroyed by fire in 1759. Shortly after the county freeholders agreed to build a new court house, to be made of brick, with a tower to house a bell, which was to be purchased by public subscription. The new court house was completed in 1761 and stood in the center of what is now Broad Street. The bell was cast in Bridgewater, Mass. in 1763 and placed in the court house in about 1775. During this era the bell was used to call the populace for worship or to hear important news from England or the governor.

The history of this bell is related to familiar events in America's history. We have all read of the Boston Tea Party, but not many of us are aware of the Cumberland County Tea Party. In the summer of 1776, the brig Greyhound, bound for Philadelphia with a cargo of tea, sailed up the Cohansey River and landed part of its cargo at Greenwich. The tea was stored in the cellar of a house at the front of Open Market Square. Imitating the Bostonian's, a group of local men, disguised as Indians, took the tea and burned it in an open field on the night of December 22nd, 1774. In this same period, a militia was formed and various companies organized, with half of them serving with the Revolutionary Army. John Gibbon, among others, was taken prisoner and was the only county resident to die aboard the British prison ship, the Jersey, that was moored at New York. These events reflect the love of liberty and sympathies of county residents and led to the joyous ringing out of liberty with their own bell that hung in the court house tower, when the first courier from Philadelphia, with the news of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Peter Force gave this account of what took place in Bridgeton on that historic day. " Declaration of Independence proclaimed at Bridgeton on Weds., 6th, Instant, the Committee of Independence for the County of Cumberland, in the State of New Jersey . The militia and a great number of inhabitants, having met in Bridgeton, went to the court house, where the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution of New Jersey and the Treason Ordinance were publicly read and approved of. This was followed by a spirited address by Dr. Jonathan Elmer, Chairman of the Committee, after which the King's coat of arms were burned in the street. "

The Liberty Bell remained in use in the court house for many years after, joining in Fourth of July celebrations each year. A new court house was built in 1844, on the south side of Broad Street, the site of the present court house, but the bell remained in the old court house until 1846, when the building was razed. The bell was then sold and used as a fire alarm on the roof of the Firemans Hall, located on Commerce Street. The trustees of the West Jersey Academy acquired the bell in 1854 and used it to summon students to school and also to give the time of day. The Bridgeton Board of Education purchased the Academy building in 1912 for use as a junior high school. The bell was considered a common school bell in this period, as very few knew of its history. Credit the Greenwich Tea Burning Chapter of The D.A.R. for publicizing the bells glorious past. When the former Junior High School was converted to a City High School in 1923, the D.A.R. Chapter placed a bronze plaque, listing facts and brief history of the bell, in the main hall of the school. This plaque is now mounted on the case that holds the bell. In 1926, the bell was displayed in the Palace of Liberal Arts, at the Philadelphia Sesquicentennial. The movement of the bell from Bridgeton to Philadelphia was made in a motorcade and stops were made in Woodbury and Camden for special ceremonies. At the close of the Sesquicentennial, the bell was returned to the Bridgeton Board of Education and in 1929, it was moved to the Cumberland County Historical Room at the county court house. * (see footnote). On the day World War II ended, a group of excited citizens rushed to get the bell, mounting it on a truck and drove down the streets of Bridgeton, ringing the hell out of the bell. Fearing damage to the bell, county officials confiscated it and returned it back to the Historical Society Room. The bell was once again paraded through the streets of Bridgeton, mounted on a float, during the 200th Anniversary of Cumberland County in 1948. At present, this historic bell is now housed in a glass and oak case and is enshrined in the main corridor of the Cumberland Court House in Bridgeton. (see postcard photo under article heading)

* The medallion was most likely struck for the Philadelphia Sesquicentennial and sold there as a souvenir, probably suspended from a ribbon and pin of some sort.

COMING EVENTS

Our annual meeting will be held at the GSNA Convention, Hyatt Hotel, Cherry Hill, N.J., Sat., June 29, 1991, between the hours of 12:30 PM and 2:00 PM. Details of the meeting room and location will be printed in the GSNA Program and posted at the convention. "Ya Bedder Be Dere".

ELECTION OF NJES OFFICERS: Election of all officers is slated for June. If you desire to run for office or wish to nominate someone, please notify our Secretary, George Skic. We need new "blood" and ideas, so help make NJES a better organization by getting involved as an officer. Our present officers will help you get over the hurdles.

A Message From Your Vice-President

Let's get right to the point. My reason for writing this note is because apathy is allowing our Society to slowly lose it's strength. Just a few members are contributing something to Jerseyana and to NJES activities. During my several years of membership, I've seen the treasury decline, less articles and advertising copy being submitted to Jerseyana and up to this date, our former treasurer has refused to turn over the Society's operating funds, documents and other property. Our acting treasurer, Al Zaika, had to temporarily fund expenses with his own money. In addition to being Vice-President, I also serve as secretary, although there's little secretarial business to look after.

Having made all these complaints of the problems facing us, it's only fitting that I should offer the following solutions;

1. Volunteer to assist the officers in Society business and by seeking an elective or appointed position.
2. Submit an article to Jerseyana regarding your collecting interests, experiences or your favorite token or medal.
3. Help our treasury by submitting a paid ad to Jerseyana, The rates are a bargain.
4. Take advantage of the FREE ads in Jerseyana and respond to fellow members.
5. Contribute something to our annual meeting auction, which also helps build up our assets.
6. Pay your dues on time and save us the additional postal expense of sending out dues payment reminders.
7. Consider converting to Life Membership. The cost is only $60.00, while saving you money in the long run and saving us the added record keeping.
8. Make it a point to attend our annual meeting in Cherry Hill, N.J. and get to meet your officers and fellow members. It's a rewarding experience.

Many similar clubs are doing much worse, so let's look on the bright side. The Persian Gulf War is over, our treasury will continue to grow as dues are paid in. My special thanks to those members who have made cash donations to the Society, all those who have renewed their membership for 1991 and to the members who converted to Life Membership. We now have twenty nine Life Members, congratulations and thanks to all.

Please contact any one of the officers if you have any complaints or suggestions. We appreciate your support.

Respectfully,

George Skic

NOTE: =====
Last year NJES had two meetings. The second meeting was held in conjunction with the GENA Convention in Cherry Hill, N.J. in September. We hope to make this second meeting an annual affair. Further news on this later.

Member Charle Rogers reported that his wife, (associate member) Freda underwent a hip replacement operation. We wish Freda a speedy recovery and offer a prayer for them both. Why not send Freda a card of cheer and brighten her day. Her address is; P.O. Box 284, Lanoka Harbor, N.J. 08734-0284

Token Disaster Strikes South Jersey

Last October thousands of tokens, mixed with slugs, washers, foreign coins and who knows what else, were buried under tons of concrete in a section of decking on the New Jersey side of the Tacony-Palmyra Bridge. The bridge toll is 50¢ cash, but some motorists use tokens or other objects to avoid paying the cash toll in the automatic lanes. A spokesman for the bridge commission stated that the items that were buried, accumulated over a period of four years and went on to say "I can't think of a better way to dispose of them", when asked, why bury them? Leave it to a bureacrat to find the simple solution. Just think, all those tokens under concrete. Its enough to make your blood run cold. Don't be surprised if you see a tall figure, with a hammer and chisel, on the bridge some dark night. The above story was gleaned from a news paper clipping furnished by David Gladfelter Thanks David. Al-Z.

MISTER SOFTEE OF SOUTH JERSEY

BY AL ZAIKA

The Mister Softee Company, located in Runnemede, N.J., is an ice cream truck franchise operation. Upon purchase of a franchise, the company furnishes a fully equipped truck, including a soft type ice cream machine, various ice cream mixes and other supplies. The franchise owner is then committed to purchase additional mixes and supplies from the parent company.

A wooden nickel, good for 5¢ towards a pint of ice cream, was issued by Mister Softee during the period of 1958-59. This wood was glued to a promotional folder, which resulted in a residue of glue being left on it when it was removed from the folder. A brown, plastic token was later issued in 1960-61. It too was worth 5¢, but wasn't restricted to any set purchase. *

I wasn't aware of these two items until I saw the token listed in one of the TAMS Maverick columns, several years ago. The irony of this, is the fact that a Mister Softee truck made the rounds of our neighborhood every evening during the summer months and was a nightly treat for our daughter Ann. Anyway, after an extensive search, I now possess both tokens.

* Note dark area on the wooden piece.

A NEW VARIETY OF ALFRED R. SHRIVE'S TOKEN

By David D. Fladfelter

When Jack Wilcox parted with his New Jersey tokens, I obtained his copper specimen of the Alfred R Shreve token of Mount Holly, (Adams-24). I looked at it closely to be sure that it was better than the piece already in my collection. His was sharper, the surface was slightly mottled. I decided to keep his, and trade mine off.

In inspecting the obverse of his piece, the side with the monogram, I noted some irregularities near the border. These proved to be the letters VICT and below the outline of a bust. I concluded that the piece had been struck over a coin or token of Queen Victoria, but could not make out enough of the undertype to identify it. I trace of the undertype could be found on the opposite side. At last year's NJES meeting Jack told me that he was completely unaware that the token was an overstrike.

The mystery has been solved, at least as to the identity of the understrike. Lot 11 in Paul Koppenhaver's, March 1990 auction was a specimen of Adams 24, struck on a 1862 English halfpenny. To Paul goes the credit of reporting the discovery specimen. This also confirms the earliest date for this token as being 1862. (Rulau places it in the 1863-69 period).

I have never seen a fully bright specimen of Adams 24 and wonder whether all of them are overstrikes on Victoria halfpence? If so, were the tokens made in England, possibly Birmingham, where monogram designs had long been popular, and by whom? If made here, ^{where} did the maker obtain the halfpence used as planchets? If anyone has answers or ideas, speak up.

The Shreve token;

Obverse - A shield, with the letters A.R.S. monogram.

Reverse - Alfred R. Shreve/Dealer/In Hardware/Paints/Oils & C/Mount Holly/NJ
Brass, copper and white metal, 25.5mm.

KEEP ON LOOKIN'

By Bob Slawsky

Most everyone who collects tokens has a story to tell about a bargain acquired at a Coin Show or Flea Market. In twenty years of collecting I have quite a few, but no find, even though perhaps more profitable, has been more enjoyed than this:

About eight years ago, at one of the bigger token shows, I was looking for tokens for my collection and also for bargains to resell or trade. The hour was late and all the dealers were ready to pack up and head their separate ways. I was at the table of a well known and very knowledgeable dealer who will go unnamed. After looking through many books and boxes of tokens I was about to open the last unsearched box when the dealer said "Don't waste your time, I've carefully checked the mavericks in there and they can't be attributed." Since this was the last table I opened the box without a word since I didn't wish to offend the dealer. He gave me a strange look then turned the other way. I proceeded to look through the dozen or so tokens when suddenly I saw it, a token I knew was from New Jersey. You all know the feeling you have when a prize is in sight so I won't try to describe it. I put it with the other tokens I had selected and asked him to add up the prices. He added a nickel for my prize and I paid the total.

It was a long walk back to my car. Anyway it seemed like it since my ragged copy of Atwood was there and I could see if I was correct. Finally I got to the car, got in, and reached under the seat for the book. It was the less expensive of the two of that type but for a nickel the NJ 115 B was a true prize that is in my collection to this day.

Editors note; NJ 115-B is the D.R.J.C., (Delaware River Joint Commission) bridge toll token. Brass, 25mm and it catalogs at $10.00.

Enclosed is a ticket for the 50-50 drawing that will be held at our annual meeting at Cherry Hill, N.J. The tickets are $1.00 each and if your not able to attend the meeting, please mail the upper part of the ticket, along with $1.00, to NJES, P.O. Box 65, Bellmawr, N.J. 08099-0065. Those who will be attending, can turn in your tickets and payment at the meeting, thank you.

NEW TRADE DOLLAR CATALOGS ISSUED

The Forth Edition of the "HANDBOOK OF UNITED STATES MUNICIPAL TRADE CURRENCY " by Jean-Guy Cote has just been released. This 72 page 4x7 pocket size guide has over 1600 items listed with over 70% of them priced. This year the listing is in Municipality order so that finding any item will be a snap. No more remembering what State or denomination it was. Included in the information is the Municipality, the state, the date of expiry, a short description and the composition of the piece. The valuations are gathered from dealer price lists and collector's information. Where such information is not available, the price is left out.

Interest in the US trade currency is rising as more and more items are discovered and cataloged.

Also issued in the same format is the "THE CTD POCKET GUIDE OF CANADIAN TRADE DOLLARS 1991". This pocket guide lists all the Canadian Municipal currency issued and includes all the 1990 items. There are over 1800 items listed including some 100 non metallic (paper, etc) items. This is the 10th year of publication.

Either book can be obtained for $4.00 each post paid from: Micro-Art, Suite 207, PO Box 2213 Postal Station P, Toronto, Ontario, Canada, M5S 2T2

Submitted by member Bob Gardner, specialist in the above items.

NEWS FLASH - The Hudson Dispatch of Union City, N.J. published its last issue last May, ending 117 years of serving as one of Hudson County's top newspaper. This is the newspaper that issued the 1¢ and 2¢, Peach Edition tokens during the Depression era.

"IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT"

The next NJES meeting will be held at the G.E.N.A. Convention, Saturday, Sept. 28th, 1991 , at 1:30P.M., at the Cherry Hill Inn, Route # 38 & Haddonfield Road, Cherry Hill, N.J.

Dennis Helmer, assisted by Bob Gregory, will give a talk and demonstration on Treasure Hunting With A Metal Detector. Don't miss it, as its something out of the ordinary.

Holiday Greetings

Minutes and program of NJES Annual Meeting, June 29, 1991, Cherry Hill, NJ.

Attendance; 26 members and guests.

A brief discussion was held, regarding Mr. Weiss and club property still in his possession. Also letter from Archie Black to NJES officers regarding same. George Skic offered to make an effort to recover NJES property from Mr. Weiss.

Nominations of G. Skic and D. Gladfelter for president were respectfully declined leaving the office of president vacant. There being no opposing candidates, the following were elected by acclimation of the members present; Vice President - Secretary; George Skic. Treasurer; Dennis Helmer. Editor: Al Zaika.

Treasurers report showed a balance of $2,544.97 in our treasury.

Editor Al Zaika mentioned that Jerseyana is now being printed at half of the cost paid by our previous editor. Al also called for more articles and material for Jerseyana.

David Gladfelter was awarded the 1990 Literary Award for his article entitled, The Ocean Bank Specimen Sheets.

Member Dennis Tilghman presented a slide program and talk on the subject of Coin Photography, along with an exhibition of cameras and accessories. A NJES Speaker Award Certificate was presented to Dennis, in appreciation.

Items donated by the following members netted $56.00 in the auction sale;

D. Gladfelter, Rodger Hershey, Pete Hogaboom, Bob Slawsky & Al Zaika.

Al Zaika was the winner of the 50/50 drawing of $14.00, with the other $14.00 enriching our treasury.

Thanks to all who attended the meeting, donated items for the auction, participated in the 50/50 drawing and the auction sale. Thanks also to R. Hershey, Bob Slawsky and Jeff Hawk for acting as judges for the 1990 Literary Award.

WE PROUDLY ANNOUNCE

Several of our members were prize winners for their exhibits and received other awards at the ANA Convention in Rosemont, Ill. last August.

The Franklin Mint Award for Private Mint Issues Since 1960 was awarded to Archie A. Black for his exhibit of ANA, For Merit of Exhibit medals. The ANA award for local interest numismatic material was awarded to Steve Middleton for his exhibit of Chicago's 1893 World's Columbian Exposition. The exhibit featured medals commemorating the introduction of the "Great Wheel", designed and built by George Washington Gale Ferris.

Robert Maisch and his wife Cheryl were presented with the Numismatic Ambassadors Award from Clifford Mishler of Numismatic News. The presentation took place at the Tokens and Medal Society banquet, Aug. 15.

Congratulations to one and all.

LEND AN EAR

1992 dues are payable after December 31, 1991. Please send your payment promptly. With the high cost of postage, we can ill afford the cost of mailing out delinquent notices. Dues are still only $6.00 and should be mailed to our Secretary, George Skic. Why not do it now while its fresh in your mind? Thanks very much for your cooperation.

P.S. - When you get around to making your New Year resolutions, resolve to sign up a new member in NJES. Membership applications are available from any of our officers. Lend a hand and help us grow.

TRENTON TRANSIT CO. PASSES

By Al Zaika

Some of these passes served a dual purpose. In addition to their ride value, they were also "good Fors" at various businesses and stores, after the expiration date. This type of reverse was not common, since the majority of tickets had plain advertising reverses. In addition to passes, Trenton Transit also issued three different metal fare tokens.

THE MUNGER & LONG DEPARTMENT STORE

Store to school: The Munger and Long Department Store — recognized as Camden's first modern department store — celebrated its opening April 12, 1904, in the stately building at Broadway and Federal Street (above). The store served the community for 22 years, then became home to the JC Penney department store. In 1965, the Commerce Building was built for $3.75 million on the site of the store. It ran into difficulties and, by 1968, its owners had declared bankruptcy. Today, the Commerce Building, which was recently cited for safety and fire code violations, houses stores and the city branch of Glassboro State College (right).

The following two items are the only exnumia specimens that I know of. Does anyone know of any others? - (AL-Z)

Charge coin, white metal, 25mm

Pinback button, celluloid, 38mm.
